

THE LEGACY OF THE TUSKEGEE AIRMEN IN SOUTH FLORIDA

In partnership with the Miramar Cultural Trust, Inc., and Florida Memorial University's Aviation Department, The Miramar Cultural Center | ArtsPark is pleased to present Soaring: The Legacy of the Tuskegee Airmen in South Florida exhibit that will be featured in the Ansin Family Art Gallery November 9 through January 22, 2018.

As a complement to the Off-Broadway play "Black Angels Over Tuskegee: The Story of the Tuskegee Airmen" by Layon Gray that will be performed one night only at the Miramar Cultural Center on Thursday, November 9, 2017, the Miramar Cultural Trust sponsored the creation of this exhibition to explore the history and to continue the legacy of the Tuskegee Airmen.

Soaring: The Legacy of the Tuskegee Airmen in South Florida exhibition will feature original Tuskegee Airmen memorabilia including a flight suit, a bomber jacket, distinguished medals and one-of-a-kind images.
